ANALYZE EXTENSIVE GLOBAL PUBLIC AND PRIVATE COMPANY DATA

Perform broad company and industry analysis with FactSet's comprehensive coverage. Analyze tens of thousands of public companies and millions of private companies worldwide, with more than 3,000 data items and over 950 industry metrics. Access full M&A data, screen on publicly-announced mergers, acquisitions, and divestitures, or identify comparable transactions based on transaction multiples, company information, financial data, advisors, or fees. Leverage the FactSet PEVC database to research global private equity and venture capital firms, their funds, and their portfolio companies.

TRACK DETAILED INDUSTRY AND PRODUCT SEGMENT ESTIMATES

Gain access to more than 450 consensus- and detail-level estimates and statistics from leading investment banks and research firms. With more than 1,200 contributing brokers, FactSet covers over 19,000 active global companies. Access industry metrics and business segments to compare KPIs against your peers. Rely on timely data from FactSet's intraday updates and complete transparency with links back to source documents including research reports and press releases.

DIG DEEPER INTO COMPANY RISK, RELATIONSHIPS, AND CLASSIFICATIONS

Gain unprecedented visibility into a company's business activities, ESG performance, risk exposures, and relationships to other organizations. With FactSet supply chain relationship data, you can access the complex networks of companies' key customers, suppliers, competitors, and strategic partners. FactSet's proprietary classification systems group companies into highly specific categories based on a company's products and services. Understand the geographic footprint of a company based on sources of revenue versus country of domicile, and investigate its true exposure to geopolitical, macroeconomic, and market risk with FactSet GeoRev.
